US DPT OF WOMEN'S BUREAU RESPONSE 1ST COVID-19 RESPONSE ACT TO ASSIST

WORKING FAMILIES BY FFCRA

Paris Washington DC, 28.03.2020, 20:45 Time

USPA NEWS - On Friday, March 20, 2020, the U.S. Treasury Department, Internal Revenue Service and the U.S. Department of Labor announced that small and midsize employers can begin taking advantage of two new refundable payroll tax credits, designed to immediately and fully reimburse them, dollar-for-dollar, for the cost of providing Coronavirus-related leave to their employees. This relief to employees and small and midsize businesses is provided under the Families First Coronavirus Response Act, signed by President Trump on March 18, 2020. Read the news release to learn more.

The U.S. Department of Labor will be hosting a national online dialogue to provide employers and employees with an innovative opportunity to offer their perspective as the Department develops compliance assistance materials and outreach strategies related to the implementation of the Families First Coronavirus Response Act (FFCRA).

Laurie Todd-Smith, Ph.D. Director for Women's Bureau U.S. Department of Labor releases this important information about how the U.S. Department of Labor is working to assist working families across America. We publish the information as regard of the FFCRA, adopted in response to the COVID-19 Outbreak.
