UABMC 2015

Austin, 08.11.2015, 22:53 Time

GAA News - Kevin Itima, a first generation Nigerian-American born in Houston, Texas, co-owner of Hestia Homes, LLC and Itima, LLC will speak at the 2015 US-Africa Business Matchmaking Conference in Austin-Texas.

Kevin Itima, a first generation Nigerian-American born in Houston, Texas, was born to Nigerian Delta state immigrants, Helen and Romeo Itima. After the completion of his undergraduate degree, Kevin moved to the Metropolitan area of Washington, D.C. where he planted seeds of influence in the field of education. He later became a member of the Baltimore County Fire Department. Upon the passing of his father, Kevin returned to Houston, becoming the co-owner and acquisition specialist of Hestia Homes, LLC. As acquisition specialist he has the responsibility of creating marketing campaigns that funnel unique and lucrative opportunities to the company.

About The Event

The 2015 US-Africa Business Matchmaking Conference (UABMC) will bring together business owners from Africa and the United States to discuss existing and potential opportunities in both markets. The event will take place from November 19 - 21, 2015 at the Asian Resource Center in Austin-Texas. The event is a high-level global conference that will feature business expo, business matchmaking, panel sessions, fashion show, and networking receptions to facilitate effective partnership building for businesses, investors and government's entities.

The event theme is "Localization and Matching of US & Africa Businesses". The event is organized by AFTV5 (African Television Network) in partnership with GABCC (Greater Austin Black Chamber of Commerce), ALB (African Leadership Bridge) and GAA (Global Attain Advancement). "This year's event will be epic, we are thrilled to be able to provide a platform of two panels with over 14 speakers, business expo, business matchmaking and endless networking opportunities, said by Bako Ambianda, the event director.
